Annual Bible Conference

March 17-22, 1991

Dear Friend:

For as long as there has been a Bob Jones University, there has been an annual Bible Conference.

It is a week when all other activities are set aside for the concentrated preaching of God's Word. It is a time of reviving, a time to "be still and know that I am God." The special speakers who will be with us this year are men in whose spiritual integrity we have confidence and whose walk with God complements their "talk." We don't believe we should ask our students or friends to sit and listen to any other kind of man.

The conference will be Heaven-sent, and it would please us greatly to have parents of present and former students, graduates, and other friends of the University join us for as much of the conference as possible.

Those everywhere who love the Lord will love this conference because the Lord is magnified. It is not a show of vain glory. It is not a time for the grinding of axes. Only the Holy Spirit tells the preachers what to preach, and we just come and wait before the Lord for the dew which is from Heaven.

If you feel your soul is dry and parched, if you need to be reminded that the Lord is gracious, come and partake of these blessings with us. We look forward to seeing you. May the Lord bless you.

Sincerely,

Concurrent Events

Pastors' and Christian Workers' Luncheon

The University invites all full-time pastors, youth pastors, evangelists, missionaries, and their wives to be our guests at a luncheon Thursday at noon in the Faculty Room of the Dining Common. Since space is limited, tickets are required and may be picked up at the Information Desk in the Administration Building from 8 a.m. on Monday to noon on Thursday.

Parents' Day

Wednesday is a day honoring parents of BJU and BJA students and is highlighted by parents' visits to their children's dormitory rooms, Bookstore discounts, and meals in the Dining Common "on the house" for parents accompanied by their children who are dormitory students.

Please Note

No photographic or recording equipment is permitted in any auditorium or assembly building. Tapes of certain messages, as approved by the speakers, may be obtained through the Bookstore.

Children six years of age and older (when accompanied by an adult) are welcome in the Art Gallery and any service or program.

Modest apparel is required. Those whose attire is not in keeping with University standards will be denied admission.

“How to Avoid Probate”

A free seminar conducted by attorneys John J. McLario and Joseph H. Helm Jr. for the benefit of BJU graduates and friends, Tuesday, March 19, in Grace Levinson Chapel at 3:30 p.m.

Get your answer to the following questions, and much more:

- What would really happen to your assets if something should happen to you . . . determining your true estate plan.
- What is a living trust? How does it avoid probate so assets can be transferred without a court proceeding?
- Is gifting during a lifetime a good idea? How about holding assets in joint tenancy?
- Is there anything I can do to protect my assets against the cost of nursing home care?

If you become convinced that a Revocable Living Trust is best for you and your family, the necessary computer-generated documents can be executed for you on the spot.

For those who avail themselves of the opportunity to place their estates under the Revocable Living Trust, Attorneys McLario and Helm, BJU graduates, offer their service for an attractive fee, the entirety of which will be donated to the University.

Make your plans to attend. Get the facts; and if you like what you hear, take advantage of the opportunity to save your heirs the cost and agony of probate.

John J. McLario is a 1950 graduate of Bob Jones University and a graduate of Marquette Law School. He is senior partner at McLario Law Offices and lectures extensively regarding wills, probate procedures, and deferred giving tax techniques. He is a member of the Executive Board of Trustees for BJU and has received numerous awards and honors, including BJU Alumni of the Year.

Joseph H. Helm Jr. is a 1980 graduate of Bob Jones University and a graduate of Valparaiso University School of Law.

He is a member of McLario Law Offices and concentrates his practice in estate planning and personal injury. He speaks regularly in churches and Christian schools and serves as Associate Pastor of Brookside Baptist Church.

What to bring to the seminar

If you think you might be interested in having a Living Trust prepared for you at the seminar, bring a copy of your current will and a copy of any deeds to real estate.

What to consider before the seminar

Normally you will be the trustee (manager) of your trust as long as you are able to do so. However, you should consider whom you will name as the person to manage your trust in the event of your incapacity or death. This would be the successor trustee. Options for this position will also be discussed at the seminar.

You should also consider how you would like your assets distributed when your trust terminates. In other words, who are your beneficiaries and what would you like them to receive?

If you would like to discuss tax considerations and potential probate costs, you should be prepared to discuss the approximate value of the assets in your estate.

How long will it take to complete the trust?

On the average it will take about two weeks to complete your trust and your complete package of estate planning documents.
